

DA FUTURE

Looking back on your history
What's been going on
Have you made it to your point
Or are you stuck too long
Do you carry all that's been
Wonder how you can
Go into the future sane
When you're fighting for the past

Can you hold the Silence friend
Wonder how you can
When you don't know up or down
Fighting for DA FUTURE
Repressed (e)motions follow you
Lead you by the nose
Fear of falling carries you
Right into the future

Wait a minute now
Stop right here
There's something to know
Inside out
Which way to go

When you look into their eyes
Tell me what you see
Do you carry all the love
Or are you enemy
All this time you live the lie
For your security
Would you trade for peace of mind
Or are you scared to see

Can you hold the Silence friend.....

Hey, wait a minute now
I got something to tell you
Stop right here
There's something to feel
Black or white
Which one is real

Can you hold the Silence friend.....
