

I Broke Up With Myself

Every day another funk
I know I'm just another punk
I slap you up you slap me down
I throw a right you hit the ground
And from the left I feel a pound
I think I need another sound

It seems so wrong, it don't feel right
Then I saw the light
And it was mighty.....hmmmm

So I Broke Up With Myself
Took my heart off the shelf
Gave it to the world
And everything fell into place
Everywhere a happy face
No one there I need to race

Every day another dream
I know it's just another scheme
To make you think I wear a crown
'Cause I've a stake in my renown
I tie you up you tie me down
Life is tough when you're so bound

It seems so wrong, it don't feel right
Then I saw the light
And it was mighty....hmmmm

So I Broke Up With Myself
Took my heart off the shelf
Gave it to the world
And everything fell into place
Everywhere a happy face
Everybody I embrace
