

Resurrect Me, Resurrect Me

Getting close to croaking
I'm not joking
Can't seem to make the way clear
The sky is falling
The madman's calling
Come on, Come on, it's here
Was supposed to get better
Was a real go-getter
But society's coming apart
Can't tell who's right
Can't stand to fight
But the world keeps breaking my heart
You want to say something
But it all means nothing
So things keep going unsaid
The sky is falling the madman's calling
I think I'm already dead
I think I'm already dead
I think I'm already dead

Resurrect Me, Resurrect Me
Oh my, Please protect me
Resurrect Me, Resurrect me, Oh

Resurrect Me, Resurrect Me
Oh My, please respect me
Resurrect Me, Resurrect Me, Oh, oh, oh

I'm trying to be straight
And Feeling so great
But something gets in the way
I know I'm no saint
But I ain't what I ain't
Going to get on my knees and pray
The future is failing
The madman's wailing
Who's going to rise who's going to fall
I thought I could take it
But now I can't fake it

I'll be there bearing the pall
There's no return
You all got to burn
As things must come to a head
The sky is falling
The madman's calling
I think I'm already dead
I think I'm already dead
I think I'm already dead

Resurrect Me, Resurrect Me
Oh my, don't reject me

Resurrect Me, Resurrect me
Oh my, please respect me

Resurrect Me, Resurrect me
Oh my, please protect me

Resurrect Me, Resurrect Me
Oh my, don't reject me
